1. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: Applicant has used "200" to describe both a primary golf bag and golf clubs on page 4.

Appropriate correction is required.

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Applicant doesn't appear to have set forth sufficient structure in claim 1 to effect the function "with said lower cylindrical ring fitting within said upper cylindrical ring" as claimed.

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Airey, Jr '292 in view of Kirkpatrick et al '521 and Strode '187.

Airey, Jr teaches a lightweight bag which is usable away from the main bag and includes a flexible body with rigid upper and lower collars as claimed. The upper collar also includes members for connection to the main bag. To have formed an attachment member on the exterior of the upper collar in the manner taught by Kirkpatrick et al at 14 would have been obvious. To have included such attachment means on the bottom collar in the manner taught by Strode for ease of carrying the lightweight bag would also have been obvious. Note the alignment of the rings by Airey, Jr and Kirkpatrick et al.

To have tapered the bag with a bottom smaller than the top would have been obvious in view of such teaching by Kirkpatrick et al.

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Crozier shows a golf bag with a bottom smaller than the top. Barrise et al, Slankster, Shears, DeMichele, Nichols, Shin, Reichersrorter and Aliano, Jr show golf club carriers.

5. The following are suggested formats for either a Certificate of Mailing or Certificate of Transmission under 37 CFR 1.8(a).
